

Number	Photo	Name	Description	Information	Seed Source
76		Abe Lincoln	Produces brilliant red, round, medium sized tomatoes that grow in clusters of up to 9. This rich, slightly acidic fruit has a delicious flavor enjoyed since 1923. Can be harvested until frost.	Indet 70-77 days 12 oz OP Late Season	Ferry-Morse
77		Ace 55 VF	The medium late, red, firm, oblate-shaped fruit are moderately smooth. The plants are medium to large and are tolerant to Verticillium and Fusarium. Low acidity, so shouldn't be used for canning.	Indet. 75-85 days 7 oz OP Late Season	Restoration Seeds
78		Arkansas Traveler	A 100 year old heirloom tomato that was grown throughout the South from northwest Arkansas to North Carolina. This vigorous tomato plants yields abundant crops of round rose-pink tomatoes. Considered to be one of the best tasting tomato varieties with well balanced sweet/tart flavors. Arkansas Traveler is much esteemed for its ability to produce flavorful tomatoes under normally adverse conditions high heat, humidity or drought. Resistant to cracking and disease.	Indet 85 days 6 in 8-10oz OP Late Season	Tomato Fest

79		Big Boy	One of the first hybrid tomatoes to be developed for the home gardener. Big Boy has been a standard in American gardens for more than 50 years. One plant can produce over a bushel of large beefy fruits. Excellent for slicing and fresh use.	Indet 78 days 1 lb. Hybrid (F1)	Lake Valley
80		Bonny Best	Old heirloom variety that produces very firm scarlet fruit with few seeds. Ideal for slicing or canning. The medium sized fruits are crack resistant and have a superb flavor.	Indet 75 days 6 oz OP Mid-Season	Lake Valley Seed
81		Box Car Willie	Abundant crops of smooth, bright-orange/red tomatoes with distinctly delicious, well-balanced, rich, sweet flavor. Good choice for canning, saucing, juicing or using in salads. Produces well until frost.	Indet 80 days 10 oz OP	tomatofest
82		Candy's Old Yellow	A very productive plant bearing pale-yellow fruit with mildly sweet fruity flavors with a light touch of acidity.	Indet. 75 days 3-4 in Mid-Season	Restoration Seeds

<h1>83</h1>		Carbon	Big, regular-leaf tomato plants yield prolific amounts of beautiful purple-brown tomatoes. These are among the darkest of the black tomatoes with delicious, rich, complex flavors.	Indet 76 days 10-14 oz OP Mid-Season	Restoration Seeds
<h1>84</h1>		Cosmonaut Volkov	An out of this world tomato from the Ukraine! Rich, deep, balanced, sweet and tangy flavor. Plants set generously sized, slightly squat, deep orange/red fruit with green-tinged shoulders, and bright red interiors.	Determinate 72 days 16-32 oz OP Mid-Season	Baker Creek
<h1>85</h1>		Eva Purple Ball	Delicious, round, blemish-free, pink-purple fruits. Purple tomatoes are generally rich in flavor and very popular among tomato gardeners. A good hot weather tomato variety.	Indet 70 days 2-3 in OP Mid-season	Seed Savers
<h1>86</h1>		Glasnost	An open-pollinated variety from Siberia producing 3", smooth, red-orange, dense, meaty fruit with excellent flavor.	Indet. 75 days OP Mid-Season	Restoration Seeds

<h1>87</h1>		Golden Queen, Livingston	Vigorous plants produce round, medium sized golden-yellow fruit with a red blush on the blossom end. Skin is smooth and rarely cracks. Listed on Slow Food USA's Ark of Taste for its low-acid, delicious, complex flavor. Great tomato for slicing in salads or making into an attractive yellow sauce.	Indet. 80 days 3.5 in 3-5 oz OP	Restoration Seeds
<h1>88</h1>		Golden Sunray	Plant produces heavy yields of tomatoes that are very sweet, meaty and very flavorful. Perfect for salads, slicing, sandwiches, and for making sauces. Plant has good foliage protecting tomatoes from sun scald. Produces well even in hot, dryer growing regions. Heat and drought tolerant.	Indet 72 days 12-16 oz OP Mid-Season	Restoration Seeds
<h1>89</h1>		Homestead 24	Great for hot, humid coastal regions in the South. This variety sets fruit even in hot weather. Big, leafy vines produce huge amounts of smooth, red, round, 10-12 oz. fruits with exceptionally good taste. Resistance to cracking and cat facing.	Determinate 81 Days OP Mid Season	Tomato Fest

<h1>90</h1>		Ilse's Yellow Latvian	Regular-leaf tomato plants with wispy leaves that yield lots of slightly-elongated, yellow-orange tomatoes with very well balanced sweet flavors. A cooks treat! Meaty walls makes this a very good sauce tomato. Also a fine salsa tomato. Suited for cooler growing regions.	Indet 78 Days 2-3 in 10oz OP Mid-Season	Tomato Fest
<h1>91</h1>		Indigo Apple	This tomato is packed with antioxidants and it's more flavorful than other purple skinned tomatoes. This tomato has proved to be a vigorous and steadfast producer.	Indet. 80 days 4-6 oz OP	Turtle Seeds
<h1>92</h1>		Jubilee	Like sunshine in the garden, this tomato is bright and golden with firm texture. Mild, low-acid flavor makes excellent tomato juice, sauce, and salsa. Expect high yields of these 3" delights. 1943 All-America Selections award winner. Disease resistant.	Indet 75-80 days 3 in

<h1>93</h1>		Linda Ukrainian	Brought to America by Ukrainian immigrants prior to the 1920's. An heirloom with round, red fruit in clusters of 3-5. Meaty, long-lasting fruit with delicious, robust, well-balanced, old-time tomatoey flavors. A winner!	Indet 75 Days 4-6 oz Mid-Season	Tomato Fest
<h1>94</h1>		Livingston's Favorite	Bright red shiny market slicer with clusters of 4 to 5 fruits. Introduced in 1883. A. W. Livingston, is considered by many the father of the tomato industry and best known developer of new varieties in nineteenth century.	Indet 6-8 oz OP Mid-Season	Restoration Seeds
<h1>95</h1>		Pantano Romaneso	A Roman heirloom. The fruit is large and deep red, with almost a purple tint. The flesh is very rich, flavorful, and juicy. An excellent tomato for home and market gardeners; very rare and delicious	Indet. 75 Days 8-12 oz OP

<h1>96</h1>		Paragon	Alexander Livingston's first breed of tomato. This antique, heirloom variety was introduced in 1870 and was used by the canning industry as well as home gardeners. Indeterminate, regular leaf plant produces high yields of smooth, red, slightly flattened, good flavored tomatoes. Known for its good old fashioned flavors.	Indet. 70-80days 4-5 in 8-10oz OP
<h1>97</h1>		Paul Robeson	A Russian variety named for the famous black opera singer, star of King Solomon's Mines, 1937. Paul Robeson, an American, was also a Russian Equal Rights Advocate for Blacks. This red-brick colored tomato has an amazing and distinct flavor that is sweet and smoky. It has developed an almost cult following among seed collectors and tomato connoisseurs.	Indet 90 days 7-10 oz is a	Baker Creek
<h1>98</h1>		Pilu	High quality, red greenhouse tomato. Clusters of 6 or 7 fruit can be harvested vine ripened by the bunch. Flavor is a very good balance of sweet and acidic. Plants thrive in our cool, wet spring and fall weather. Great main season outdoor production in Oregon.	Indet 3 oz OP Mid-Season	Resotation Seeds

<h1>99</h1>		Redfield Beauty	A prized heirloom with just a hint of tartness, selected from Livingston's Beauty in the late 1800's. Oblate fruits are very flat and drop from plants when ripe. A good slicing variety for fresh eating.	Indet 80 days 6-12 oz OP Mid-Season	Seed Savers Exchange
<h1>100</h1>		Rose De Berne	Resembles an apple in shape and red pink color. The Brandywine of Europe, flavorful tomato in France, Germany and Switzerland, named for the Swiss capital. Blemish free skin, good early production for market.	Indet 75 days 8-14 oz OP Mid-Season	Restoration Seeds
<h1>101</h1>		Rutgers	Fruits are bright red, medium large, smooth, globe shaped with thick walls and good interior color. Vigorous and prolific. Very popular.	Determinate 73 days 8 oz OP	American Seed
<h1>102</h1>		Sioux	The most popular tomato in OK during the 1950's. This variety bursts with excellent, slightly tart flavors. Produces plentiful crops even in hot conditions and in dry regions. Great canning or salad tomato.	Semi-det 78 days 2 ½ in/6 oz OP Mid-Season	Tomato Fest

<h1>103</h1>		Tangerine	Heirloom producing intense glowing-orange, juicy slicing tomatoes, heavy for their size with mild, sweet flavor and creamy texture. The tall, sturdy vines produce heavy yields over a long season.	Indet. 80 days OP	Renee's Garden
<h1>104</h1>		Taxi	The best bright yellow tomato for short season gardeners. This determinate variety grows to about 2 feet tall and 2 feet across. Expect heavy yields of mild, non-acid tomatoes for 3-4 weeks. Great for the lunch box and salsas.	Determinate 80 days 4-6 oz OP Mid-Season	Johnny's Select Seed
<h1>105</h1>		Trophy	Produces a good amounts of medium-sized, four to twelve ounce, flattened-globe to oblate shaped fruits that are firm & solid but also juicy, and mildly sweet. A good variety for processing and fresh slicing.	Indet 95 days 4-12 oz OP Late Season	Restoration Seeds